ORDER

Issued: September 25, 2012 Released: September 25, 2012

On August 20, 2012, Game Show Network, LLC ("GSN") and Cablevision Systems Corp. ("Cablevision") filed Parties' Joint Status Report as ordered by the Presiding Judge on August 8, 2012 in Order, FCC 12M-40. The Status Report indicated that discovery was proceeding smoothly, but raised three issues that GSN and Cablevision had yet to resolve: (1) the number of fact depositions to which each party is entitled; (2) the inclusion of Cablevision's CEO as a custodian of files whose files will be searched for responsive documents; and (3) the appropriate sampling of hours and types of GSN programming that GSN will produce to Cablevision. It would be appropriate at this time that the non-governmental parties update the status of the respective parties' document production efforts, including any resolution to the three issues noted above or any relief believed to be necessary for resolution.[1]

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that GSN and Cablevision submit a Joint Status Report on or before October 10, 2012 on (1) the progress of document production since the filing of the Parties' Joint Status Report; (2) the status of the three unresolved issues listed above; and (3) the existence of any other obstacles to discovery or refusals to produce documents that either party is confronting, if any.
