NOTICE OF APPARENT LIABILITY FOR FORFEITURE

Adopted: March 16, 2012

Released: March 16, 2012

By the Chief, Media Bureau:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. In this Notice of Apparent Liability For Forfeiture (“NAL”), we find that Bailey Cable TV, Inc. (“Bailey”) apparently willfully and repeatedly violated Section 325 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (the “Act”), and Section 76.64 of the Commission’s rules, by retransmitting the signal of a broadcasting station without “the express authority” of the originating station.¹ Based upon our review of the facts, we find Bailey apparently liable for a monetary forfeiture in the amount of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000).

II. BACKGROUND

2. Communications Corporation of America (“ComCorp”) is the parent company of the licensee of full-power television station WGMB-TV, Baton Rouge, Louisiana. ComCorp filed a complaint with the Commission, alleging that Bailey retransmitted without consent the signal of WGMB-TV on its cable system serving St. Francisville, Louisiana; Angola, Louisiana; and certain unincorporated areas within West Feliciana Parish, Louisiana (the “Communities”).²

3. Bailey’s cable system serving the Communities is a multichannel video programming distributor (“MVPD”), and WGMB-TV is a broadcasting station within the Baton Rouge Designated Market Area (“DMA”) served by Bailey.³ For the 2012-2014 carriage cycle, for the Bailey cable system serving the Communities, ComCorp elected retransmission consent for WGMB-TV.⁴ Although Bailey’s retransmission consent agreement with ComCorp expired on December 31, 2011, Bailey continued carrying WGMB-TV despite the absence of an extension or renewal agreement.⁵ ComCorp informed Bailey, both before and after the expiration of the retransmission consent agreement, that Bailey was not permitted to retransmit WGMB-TV once the agreement expired.⁶ ComCorp seeks an order directing Bailey to comply with the law and imposing appropriate sanctions for its knowing, deliberate, and continuing violations.⁷

² See Enforcement Complaint Concerning WGMB-TV, Baton Rouge, Louisiana (dated Jan. 23, 2012) (“WGMB-TV Complaint”). Concurrently with this NAL, we are issuing a Notice of Apparent Liability For Forfeiture pertaining to a similar complaint filed by Knight Broadcasting of Baton Rouge License Corp. (“White Knight”), the licensee of full-power television station WVLA-TV, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, against Bailey. See Enforcement Complaint Concerning WVLA-TV, Baton Rouge, Louisiana (dated Jan. 25, 2012) (“WVLA-TV Complaint”). Bailey was formerly known as Audubon Cablevision. See WVLA-TV Complaint at 1.

4. In response, Bailey does not refute that it retransmitted WGMB-TV without express, written consent.⁸ Rather, Bailey argues that it faced a “dramatic increase” in requested retransmission consent fees, and states that it receives the signal by antenna rather than satellite or the Internet.⁹ Bailey claims that ComCorp is “using [the Commission] as a tool to negotiate a dramatic increase in rates” and it requests that the Commission require the fair negotiation of a reasonable rate.¹⁰ On February 3, 2012, following a telephone conference with Commission staff and the parties, Bailey and ComCorp executed an agreement extending the term of their retransmission consent agreement.¹¹

III. DISCUSSION

5. As described below, we conclude that Bailey is apparently liable for a forfeiture in the amount of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) for its apparent willful and repeated retransmission of WGMB-TV’s signal without the express authority of the originating station. Under Section 503(b)(1) of the Act, any person who is determined by the Commission to have willfully or repeatedly failed to comply with any provision of the Act or any rule, regulation, or order issued by the Commission shall be liable to the United States for a forfeiture penalty.¹² Section 312(f)(1) of the Act defines willful as “the conscious and deliberate commission or omission of [any] act, irrespective of any intent to violate” the ⁶ Id. at 3-4. ComCorp alleges that its designated negotiator contacted Bailey on December 30, 2011, “and advised it that at midnight on December 31, 2011, the Agreement would expire and Bailey would no longer have authority to retransmit the programming for WGMB-TV.” Id. at 3. On January 3, 2012, ComCorp faxed and e-mailed Bailey a letter stating that its continuing carriage of WGMB-TV was in violation of federal law. Id. at 4 and Ex. C.

law.¹³ The legislative history to Section 312(f)(1) of the Act clarifies that this definition of willful applies to both Sections 312 and 503(b) of the Act,¹⁴ and the Commission has so interpreted the term in the Section 503(b) context.¹⁵ The Commission may also assess a forfeiture for violations that are merely repeated and not willful.¹⁶ “Repeated” means that the act was committed or omitted more than once or lasts more than one day.¹⁷ In order to impose a forfeiture, the Commission must issue a notice of apparent liability, the notice must be received, and the person against whom the notice has been issued must have an opportunity to show, in writing, why no such penalty should be imposed or why it should be reduced and must include a detailed factual statement and pertinent documents and affidavits as support.¹⁸ The Commission will then issue a forfeiture if it finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the person has willfully or repeatedly violated the Act or a Commission rule.¹⁹

6. Section 325 of the Act requires cable systems and other MVPDs to obtain “the express authority of the originating station” to retransmit a broadcasting station’s signal.²⁰ This requirement is codified in Section 76.64 of the Commission’s rules, which further requires retransmission consent agreements to be in writing and to “specify the extent of the consent being granted.”²¹ The Commission previously stated that if an MVPD retransmits a television signal without consent, Commission intervention would be consistent with precedent and “properly documented retransmission of a television signal without consent would be grounds for imposition of a forfeiture.”²²

7. We find that Bailey apparently violated Section 325 of the Act and Section 76.64 of the Commission’s rules by retransmitting WGMB-TV’s signal without the required consent. Bailey does not dispute ComCorp’s allegations that it retransmitted WGMB-TV’s signal despite the expiration of the retransmission consent agreement and the failure to enter into an extension or renewal agreement.²³ Bailey objects to the increase in the retransmission consent fees requested by ComCorp,²⁴ but such an increase does not justify an MVPD’s retransmission of a broadcasting station’s signal without the originating station’s express authority. We also find irrelevant to this matter Bailey’s statement that it receives the signal “free over the air to antenna receivers.”²⁵ We emphasize that the cable operator has discretion to decide whether to enter into a retransmission consent agreement, but in the absence of such an agreement, the Act and the Commission’s rules prohibit retransmission of the station’s signal. Although ComCorp informed Bailey that its retransmission of WGMB-TV was a violation of federal law,²⁶ Bailey continued impermissibly retransmitting the station’s signal from January 1, 2012 until February 3, 2012.

8. Based upon the evidence before us, and in view of the applicable law and Commission precedent, we find that Bailey apparently willfully and repeatedly violated Section 325 of the Act and Section 76.64 of the Commission’s rules. The Commission’s Forfeiture Policy Statement and Section 1.80 of the Commission’s rules specify a base forfeiture amount of seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500) for each violation of the cable broadcast carriage rules.²⁷ In assessing the monetary forfeiture amount, we must take into account the statutory factors set forth in Section 503(b)(2)(E) of the Act and Section 1.80 of the Commission’s rules,²⁸ which include the nature, circumstances, extent, and gravity of the violation, and with respect to the violator, the degree of culpability, any history of prior offenses, ability to pay, and other such matters as justice may require.²⁹ The base forfeiture amount for the present matter would be calculated as follows:

$$\text{$7,500 base forfeiture} \times 34 \text{ days} = \text{$255,000 total base forfeiture}$$

During our investigation, Bailey submitted financial information which, after our review, establishes that a $255,000 forfeiture would place the company in extreme financial hardship, and would represent a significant percentage of Bailey’s gross revenues. Accordingly, we act within our discretion to reduce the proposed forfeiture. With regard to an individual’s or entity’s inability to pay the forfeiture, the Commission has determined that, in general, gross revenues are the best indicator of an inability to pay a forfeiture.³⁰ Having reviewed Bailey’s submitted documentation (including gross revenue figures), and after applying the Forfeiture Policy Statement, Section 1.80 of the rules, and the statutory factors to the instant case, we conclude that Bailey is apparently liable for a forfeiture in the amount of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000). We caution, however, that a party’s inability to pay is only one factor in our forfeiture calculation analysis, and is not dispositive.³¹ We have previously rejected inability to pay claims in cases of repeated or otherwise egregious violations.³² Therefore, future violations of this kind may result in significantly higher forfeitures that may not be reduced due to Bailey's financial circumstances.

IV. ORDERING CLAUSES

9. ACCORDINGLY, IT IS ORDERED, pursuant to Section 503(b) of the Act,³³ and Sections 0.61, 0.283, and 1.80 of the Commission's rules,³⁴ that Bailey Cable TV, Inc. is hereby NOTIFIED of its APPARENT LIABILITY FOR FORFEITURE in the amount of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) for apparently willfully and repeatedly violating Section 325 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and Section 76.64 of the Commission's rules.

10. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, pursuant to Section 1.80 of the Commission's rules, that within thirty (30) days of the release of this NAL, Bailey Cable TV, Inc. SHALL PAY the full amount of the proposed forfeiture or SHALL FILE a written statement seeking reduction or cancellation of the proposed forfeiture, including a detailed factual statement in support of its request for reduction or cancellation of the proposed forfeiture, and supported by pertinent documents and affidavits.

11. Payment of the forfeiture must be made by check or similar instrument, payable to the order of the Federal Communications Commission. The payment must include the NAL/Account number and FRN referenced above. Payment by check or money order may be mailed to Federal Communications Commission, P.O. Box 979088, St. Louis, MO 63197-9000. Payment by overnight mail may be sent to U.S. Bank – Government Lockbox #979088, SL-MO-C2-GL, 1005 Convention Plaza, St. Louis, Missouri 63101. Payment by wire transfer may be made to ABA Number 021030004, receiving bank TREAS/NYC, and account number 27000001. For payment by credit card, an FCC Form 159 (Remittance Advice) must be submitted. When completing the FCC Form 159, enter the NAL/Account number in block number 23A (call sign/other ID), and enter the letters "FORF" in block number 24A (payment type code). Requests for payment of the full amount under an installment plan should be sent to: Chief Financial Officer -- Financial Operations, Federal Communications Commission, 445 12th Street, S.W., Room 1-A625, Washington, D.C. 20554. Please contact the Financial Operations Group Help Desk at 1-877-480-3201 or Email: ARINQUIRIES@fcc.gov with any questions regarding payment procedures. Bailey shall also send electronic notification on the date said payment is made to Diana.Sokolow@fcc.gov.

12. The response, if any, must be mailed to Diana Sokolow, Policy Division, Media Bureau, Federal Communications Commission, 445 12th Street, SW, Washington, D.C. 20554, and SHALL INCLUDE the NAL/Acct. number referenced above. In addition, to the extent practicable, a copy of the response, if any, should also be transmitted via e-mail to Diana.Sokolow@fcc.gov.
