

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) Special Access Data Collection

WC Docket No. 05-25; RM-50193

(Updated as of: 10/14/14)

This document was prepared by the staff at the Wireline Competition Bureau and provides answers to non-technical frequently asked questions (FAQs) regarding the Special Access Data Collection and will be updated periodically. These FAQs are not a substitute for carefully reviewing the data collection Questions and Instructions. Please direct all technical questions concerning the Special Access Web Portal to FCC Support at 1-877-480-3201 or 1-717-338-2824 (TTY) or you may submit requests via e-support.

As used below, all capitalized and italicized terms (e.g., Purchaser, Provider, etc.) are defined terms used for purposes of the data collection. For definitions of these terms, please refer to the Special Access Data Collection – Glossary of Terms.

General

1. What is special access?

Special access services, or Dedicated Services, transport voice and data over a dedicated transmission line between two or more designated points at a rate of at least 1.5 megabytes per second (Mbps) upstream and downstream. Special access service encompasses Circuit-Based Dedicated Services (CBDS) such as DS1s and DS3s and Packet-Based Dedicated Services (PBDS) such as Ethernet. For example, wireless providers use high capacity special access lines to send voice and data from cell towers to their mobile switching center where the call is then switched to the sender's intended recipient. Individual consumers, small businesses, government offices, hospitals, medical offices, schools, libraries, ATMs and credit card readers use special access to either connect to a dedicated network or to an Internet service provider for the completion of the transmission via the Internet.

2. What is the purpose of the special access data collection?

The FCC is collecting data for an analysis of the broader special access market. The analysis will help the FCC revise its regulations of the special access services provided by larger traditional phone companies—the “price cap” Incumbent Local Exchange Carriers (ILECs) such as AT&T, Verizon, Qwest, etc.—to target regulatory relief where there is sufficient competition to ensure just and reasonable rates, terms, and conditions. For more information, see the FCC's Special Access Data Collection Overview webpage.

3. What is the Commission going to do with the data collected?

The Commission is collecting the data for a comprehensive market analysis that will look at the number special access providers, facilities, service offerings, revenues, and expenditures nationwide in all price cap areas. The Commission's review is not limited to the legacy TDM-based services such as DS1s and DS3s provided by larger traditional phone companies (ILECs) but also includes the packet-based service offerings of both phone companies and their competitors such as Ethernet. For more information about the proposed analysis, see the Commission's December 2012 Data Collection Order.

4. What is the filing deadline for the collection?

December 15, 2014.

5. Where do I submit my data and information in response to the collection?

The FCC launched a secure web filing interface, i.e. the special access data collection web portal, through which respondents will file data and information in response to the data collection and certifications for those Form 477 filers needing to just certify that they are not covered by the scope of the collection. The special access data collection web portal is available by clicking here.

6. What are the penalties for not filing in response to this data collection?

Failure to comply with these data reporting requirements may subject parties to monetary forfeitures of up to $160,000 for each violation or each day of a continuing violation, up to a maximum of $1,575,000 for any single act or failure to act that is a continuing violation.

7. Is there a filing fee?

No.

8. Is there a glossary of terms used in the collection?

Definitions are available in the Definitions section of the Data Collection Questions or the Commission maintains a Glossary page for the data collection.

Who must respond to the collection?

1. Who must respond to the collection?

Providers and Purchasers of Dedicated Services and certain entities providing Best Efforts Business Broadband Internet Access Service in study areas where the Incumbent Local Exchange Carrier (ILEC) is subject to price cap regulation must respond to the collection unless specifically excluded. The collection captures data from ILECs, competitive local exchange carriers (CLECs), interexchange carriers (IXCs), cable system operators, wireless providers, or any other entity subject to the FCC's jurisdiction that is not otherwise exempted that either provides a dedicated service or a connection over which a Dedicated Service could be provided as well as End User, i.e. business, institutional or government entities, that purchase Dedicated Services including wireless service providers. For more information, see Section II – Who is Required to Respond to Data the Collection?

2. How can I determine if I operate in a study area where the ILEC is subject to price cap regulation?

A map depicting the study areas where the ILECs are subject to price cap and rate-of-return regulation is available on the Commission's website; the map will assist entities in determining whether or not you are providing or purchasing services in price cap areas. You are only required to report information and data pertaining to those study areas where the ILEC is subject to price cap regulation, not rate-of-return areas. That said, entities can report information across their territories, including the rate-of-return areas, if they find it easier to do so.

3. Am I required to respond if I only operate in areas where the Incumbent Local Exchange Carrier (ILEC) is subject to rate of return regulation?

No. You are only required to respond to the data collection in study areas where the ILEC is subject to price cap regulation, not rate-of-return regulation. To determine if you operate in a price cap or rate of return study area, consult the following map maintained by the Commission.

4. Am I required to respond if the ILEC that operated in my service area converted from rate-or-return to price cap regulation in 2013?

Yes. The collection covers Dedicated Service provided or purchased and Best Efforts Business Broadband Internet Access Service provided if the ILEC was subject to price cap regulation in the area at any point during the relevant reporting period, 2013.

5. Who is required to respond to the collection when a change of control occurs during the 2013 reporting period?

If at any point during the 2013 reporting period, the entity in question provided services covered by the scope of this collection or purchased Best Efforts Business Broadband Internet Access Service, then the current owner of that entity is required to respond.

6. Who is required to respond to the collection when a change of control occurs after the 2013 reporting period?

In a situation where a system used to provide service in 2013 is later sold in an assignment of assets in 2014, then the successor-in-interest at the time of the December 15, 2014 filing deadline is required to comply. Of course, the parties could contract to have the seller prepare the filing but the reporting entity is the successor-in-interest. In a transfer of control scenario, the entity that owns the system still exists and would still have to comply even if control of that entity was transferred in 2014.

Exemptions from Responding

1. I am a small business Purchaser. Am I required to respond?

Purchasers that purchased less than $5 million in Dedicated Services in 2013 in areas where the ILEC is subject to price cap regulation are specifically excluded from the collection. However, if you were required to file FCC Form 477 to report the provision of broadband connections to end user locations for year 2013 then you must file a certification using the Streamlined Certification Process using the FCC's secure website portal, Special Access Web Portal. For more information, see Data Collection Questions – Pages 4, 28 and the System Guide. Additionally, the FCC has prepared a decisional tree diagram to help you determine whether you are required to respond to the collection which is available by clicking here.

2. Am I exempted as a holding company if in the aggregate my Affiliated Companies exceed the $5 million threshold exempting Purchasers from the collection?

Purchasers that purchased less than $5 million in Dedicated Services in 2013 in areas where the ILEC is subject to price cap regulation are specifically excluded from the collection unless they filed FCC Form 477 in 2013 in which case they can so certify. Further, parties can either submit a single response reporting aggregate information at the ultimate parent/holding company level for all subsidiaries, affiliates, and intermediate holding companies or submit separate responses for individual subsidiaries, affiliates, and intermediate holding companies. For additional information, see the data collection Instructions – Pages 7-8. Additionally, the FCC has prepared a decisional tree diagram to help you determine whether you are required to respond to the collection which is available by clicking here.

3. I am a small Best Efforts Business Broadband Internet Access Service provider. Am I required to respond?

Entities providing Best Efforts Business Broadband Internet Access Service to fewer than 15,000 customers and fewer than 1,500 business broadband customers as of December 18, 2012 are not required to respond to the questions directed at such entities. However, you may be required to provide data in response to questions if you are a Provider or Purchaser of Dedicated Services. For more information, see Data Collection Questions – Page 1. Additionally, the FCC has prepared a decisional tree diagram to help you determine whether you are required to respond to the collection which is available by clicking here.

4. I am a business, school, or local government entity that provides an information service. Am I required to respond?

End Users (businesses, schools, local government entities) that provide an information service (such as Internet access service) are excluded from the questions directed at Purchasers. However, you may be required to provide data in response to questions if you are a Provider or entity providing Best Efforts Business Broadband Internet Access Service to 15,000 or more customers or 1,500 or more business broadband customers in price cap areas. Even if you do not fall in any of these categories, you may have an obligation to simply file a certification with the FCC saying as much if you were required to file the FCC Form 477 to report broadband connections to end user locations for 2013. For additional information, see the Bureau's September 2013 Data Collection Implementation Order and the data collection Instructions – Pages 3-4. Additionally, the FCC has prepared a decisional tree diagram to help you determine whether you are required to respond to the collection which is available by clicking here.

5. I am an equipment authorization holder regulated under Parts 2 and 15 of the Commission's rules. Am I required to respond?

Parts 2 and 15 equipment authorization holders are excluded from the questions directed at Purchasers. However, you may be required to provide data in response to questions if you are a Provider or entity providing Best Efforts Business Broadband Internet Access Service to 15,000 or more customers or 1,500 or more business broadband customers in price cap areas. Even if you do not fall in any of these categories, you may have an obligation to simply file a certification with the FCC saying as much if you were required to file the FCC Form 477 to report broadband connections to end user locations for 2013. For additional information, see the Bureau's September 2013 Data Collection Implementation Order and the data collection Instructions – Pages 3-4. Additionally, the FCC has prepared a decisional tree diagram to help you determine whether you are required to respond to the collection which is available by clicking here.

6. I am an accounting authorization holder in the maritime and maritime mobile-satellite radio services regulated under Part 3 of the Commission's rules. Am I required to respond?

Part 3 accounting authorization holders in the maritime and maritime mobile-satellite radios services are excluded from the questions directed at Purchasers. However, you may be required to provide data in response to questions if you are a Provider or entity providing Best Efforts Business Broadband Internet Access Service to 15,000 or more customers or 1,500 or more business broadband customers in price cap areas. Even if you do not fall in any of these categories, you may have an obligation to simply file a certification with the FCC saying as much if you were required to file the FCC Form 477 to report broadband connections to end user locations for 2013. For additional information, see the Bureau's September 2013 Data Collection Implementation Order and the data collection Instructions – Pages 3-4. Additionally, the FCC has prepared a decisional tree diagram to help you determine whether you are required to respond to the collection which is available by clicking here.

7. I am an experimental radio authorization holder regulated under Part 5 of the Commission's rules. Am I required to respond?

Part 5 experimental radio authorization holders are excluded from the questions directed at Purchasers. However, you may be required to provide data in response to questions if you are a Provider or entity providing Best Efforts Business Broadband Internet Access Service to 15,000 or more customers or 1,500 or more business broadband customers in price cap areas. Even if you do not fall in any of these categories, you may have an obligation to simply file a certification with the FCC saying as much if you were required to file the FCC Form 477 to report broadband connections to end user locations for 2013. For additional information, see the Bureau's September 2013 Data Collection Implementation Order and the data collection Instructions – Pages 3-4. Additionally, the FCC has prepared a decisional tree diagram to help you determine whether you are required to respond to the collection which is available by clicking here.

8. I am a commercial radio operator regulated under Part 13 of the Commission's rules. Am I required to respond?

Part 13 commercial radio operators are excluded from the questions directed at Purchasers. However, you may be required to provide data in response to questions if you are a Provider or entity providing Best Efforts Business Broadband Internet Access Service to 15,000 or more customers or 1,500 or more business broadband customers in price cap areas. Even if you do not fall in any of these categories, you may have an obligation to simply file a certification with the FCC saying as much if you were required to file the FCC Form 477 to report broadband connections to end user locations for 2013. For additional information, see the Bureau's September 2013 Data Collection Implementation Order and the data collection Instructions – Pages 3-4. Additionally, the FCC has prepared a decisional tree diagram to help you determine whether you are required to respond to the collection which is available by clicking here.

9. I am an antenna structure registration holder regulated under Part 17 of the Commission's rules. Am I required to respond?

Part 17 antenna structure registration holders are excluded from the questions directed at Purchasers. However, you may be required to provide data in response to questions if you are a Provider or entity providing Best Efforts Business Broadband Internet Access Service to 15,000 or more customers or 1,500 or more business broadband customers in price cap areas. Even if you do not fall in any of these categories, you may have an obligation to simply file a certification with the FCC saying as much if you were required to file the FCC Form 477 to report broadband connections to end user locations for 2013. For additional information, see the Bureau's September 2013 Data Collection Implementation Order and the data collection Instructions – Pages 3-4. Additionally, the FCC has prepared a decisional tree diagram to help you determine whether you are required to respond to the collection which is available by clicking here.

10. I am a television and/or radio broadcaster regulated under Part 73 of the Commission's rules. Am I required to respond?

Part 73 television and/or radio broadcasters are excluded from the questions directed at Purchasers. However, you may be required to provide data in response to questions if you are a Provider or entity providing Best Efforts Business Broadband Internet Access Service to 15,000 or more customers or 1,500 or more business broadband customers in price cap areas. Even if you do not fall in any of these categories, you may have an obligation to simply file a certification with the FCC saying as much if you were required to file the FCC Form 477 to report broadband connections to end user locations for 2013. For additional information, see the Bureau's September 2013 Data Collection Implementation Order and the data collection Instructions – Pages 3-4. Additionally, the FCC has prepared a decisional tree diagram to help you determine whether you are required to respond to the collection which is available by clicking here.

11. I hold an authorization issued pursuant to Part 74 of the Commission's rules such as experimental radio, auxiliary, special broadcast and other program distribution service authorizations. Am I required to respond?

Part 74 authorization holders, such as experimental radio, auxiliary, special broadcast and other program distribution service authorization holders, are excluded from the questions directed at Purchasers. However, you may be required to provide data in response to questions if you are a Provider or entity providing Best Efforts Business Broadband Internet Access Service to 15,000 or more customers or 1,500 or more business broadband customers in price cap areas. Even if you do not fall in any of these categories, you may have an obligation to simply file a certification with the FCC saying as much if you were required to file the FCC Form 477 to report broadband connections to end user locations for 2013. For additional information, see the Bureau's September 2013 Data Collection Implementation Order and the data collection Instructions – Pages 3-4. Additionally, the FCC has prepared a decisional tree diagram to help you determine whether you are required to respond to the collection which is available by clicking here.

12. I hold a maritime service authorization regulated under Part 80 of the Commission's rules. Am I required to respond?

Part 80 maritime service authorization holders are excluded from the questions directed at Purchasers. However, you may be required to provide data in response to questions if you are a Provider or entity providing Best Efforts Business Broadband Internet Access Service to 15,000 or more customers or 1,500 or more business broadband customers in price cap areas. Even if you do not fall in any of these categories, you may have an obligation to simply file a certification with the FCC saying as much if you were required to file the FCC Form 477 to report broadband connections to end user locations for 2013. For additional information, see the Bureau's September 2013 Data Collection Implementation Order and the data collection Instructions – Pages 3-4. Additionally, the FCC has prepared a decisional tree diagram to help you determine whether you are required to respond to the collection which is available by clicking here.

13. I am an aviation service authorization holder regulated under Part 87 of the Commission's rules. Am I required to respond?

Part 87 aviation service authorization holders are excluded from the questions directed at Purchasers. However, you may be required to provide data in response to questions if you are a Provider or entity providing Best Efforts Business Broadband Internet Access Service to 15,000 or more customers or 1,500 or more business broadband customers in price cap areas. Even if you do not fall in any of these categories, you may have an obligation to simply file a certification with the FCC saying as much if you were required to file the FCC Form 477 to report broadband connections to end user locations for 2013. For additional information, see the Bureau's September 2013 Data Collection Implementation Order and the data collection Instructions – Pages 3-4. Additionally, the FCC has prepared a decisional tree diagram to help you determine whether you are required to respond to the collection which is available by clicking here.

14. I am a private land mobile radio service authorization holder regulated under Part 90 of the Commission's rules. Am I required to respond?

Part 90 private land mobile radio service authorization holders are excluded from the questions directed at Purchasers except for authorization holders providing point-to-point fixed microwave services and authorization holders in the Wireless Broadband Services frequency band (3650-3700 MHz). Further, you may be required to provide data in response to questions if you are a Provider or entity providing Best Efforts Business Broadband Internet Access Service to 15,000 or more customers or 1,500 or more business broadband customers in price cap areas. Even if you do not fall in any of these categories, you may have an obligation to simply file a certification with the FCC saying as much if you were required to file the FCC Form 477 to report broadband connections to end user locations for 2013. For additional information, see the Bureau's September 2013 Data Collection Implementation Order and the data collection Instructions – Pages 3-4. Additionally, the FCC has prepared a decisional tree diagram to help you determine whether you are required to respond to the collection which is available by clicking here

15. I am a personal radio service authorization holder regulated under Part 95 of the Commission's rules. Am I required to respond?

Part 95 personal radio service authorization holders are excluded from the questions directed at Purchasers. However, you may be required to provide data in response to questions if you are a Provider or entity providing Best Efforts Business Broadband Internet Access Service to 15,000 or more customers or 1,500 or more business broadband customers in price cap areas. Even if you do not fall in any of these categories, you may have an obligation to simply file a certification with the FCC saying as much if you were required to file the FCC Form 477 to report broadband connections to end user locations for 2013. For additional information, see the Bureau's September 2013 Data Collection Implementation Order and the data collection Instructions – Pages 3-4. Additionally, the FCC has prepared a decisional tree diagram to help you determine whether you are required to respond to the collection which is available by clicking here.

16. I am an amateur radio service authorization holder regulated under Part 97 of the Commission's rules. Am I required to respond?

Part 97 amateur radio service authorization holders are excluded from the questions directed at Purchasers. However, you may be required to provide data in response to questions if you are a Provider or entity providing Best Efforts Business Broadband Internet Access Service to 15,000 or more customers or 1,500 or more business broadband customers in price cap areas. Even if you do not fall in any of these categories, you may have an obligation to simply file a certification with the FCC saying as much if you were required to file the FCC Form 477 to report broadband connections to end user locations for 2013. For additional information, see the Bureau's September 2013 Data Collection Implementation Order and the data collection Instructions – Pages 3-4. Additionally, the FCC has prepared a decisional tree diagram to help you determine whether you are required to respond to the collection which is available by clicking here.

17. Am I required to if I filed FCC Form 477 for 2013 but I am not a Provider, Purchaser, or Best Efforts Business Broadband Internet Access Services provider in a price cap area?

If you were required to report broadband connections to end user locations on the FCC Form 477 (“Local Telephone Competition and Broadband Reporting”) for 2013 you are required to respond to the collection only to certify that you are not a Provider, Purchaser, or Best Efforts Business Broadband Internet Access Services provider in a price cap area. Additionally, the FCC has prepared a decisional tree diagram to help you determine whether you are required to respond to the collection which is available by clicking here.

18. Is there a de minimis or small business exemption from responding?

Purchasers that purchased less than $5 million in Dedicated Services in 2013 in areas where the ILEC is subject to price cap regulation in 2013 are excluded from the questions directed at Purchasers. However, you may be required to provide data in response to questions if you are a Provider or entity providing Best Efforts Business Broadband Internet Access Service to 15,000 or more customers or 1,500 or more business broadband customers in price cap areas. Even if you do not fall in any of these categories, you may have an obligation to simply file a certification with the FCC saying as much if you were required to file the FCC Form 477 to report broadband connections to end user locations for 2013. For additional information, see the Bureau's September 2013 Data Collection Implementation Order and the data collection Instructions – Pages 1-4. Additionally, the FCC has prepared a decisional tree diagram to help you determine whether you are required to respond to the collection which is available by clicking here.

Confidential Treatment of Submissions

1. Will other filers be able to view the information I submit?

Information and data submitted in response to the data collection are subject to protections afforded in the Data Collection Protective Order. Only those authorized persons who are Outside Counsel or Outside Consultants and not involved in Competitive Decision-Making and have executed an Acknowledgement of Confidentiality, as those terms are defined in the Protective Order, will be able to access Confidential and Highly Confidential Information and Data submitted in response to the collection. For more information, see the Data Collection Protective Order.

2. Will other parties be able to view my submissions through the special access web portal?

No. Only the filer will be able to view their essay uploads and database container uploads submitted in response to the collection through the web portal.

3. How will the FCC protect customer names and Customer Proprietary Network Information (CPNI)?

The FCC will mask the names of customers, i.e. Customer Proprietary Network Information (CPNI), reported by Providers in their reported billing data with some other unique identifier which will protect the customer's privacy interest while not adversely affecting analysis results. For more information, see the Data Collection Protective Order.

Definitions

1. Does the definition of Connection include a dedicated communications path between two End Users?

Yes.
