OLGA MADRUGA-FORTI RETURNS TO INTERNATIONAL BUREAU AS DIVISION CHIEF

Washington, D.C. -- Today, Federal Communications Commission International Bureau Chief, Mindel De La Torre, announced that Olga Madruga-Forti joined the International Bureau as the Chief of the Strategic Analysis and Negotiations Division.

“I am pleased to welcome Olga back to the International Bureau. Olga brings a tremendous amount of international telecommunications experience to the Division and will be a tremendous asset for the Bureau,” said Mindel De La Torre.

Ms. Madruga-Forti returns to the Commission with 17 years of private sector international telecommunications experience, most recently with ARSAT Telecomm S.A. where she was International Counsel. Additionally, Ms. Madruga-Forti was a Member of the Board for the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN) and an Adjunct Professor of Telecommunications Law and Negotiation. Ms. Madruga-Forti left the Commission in 1997 when she served as Special Counsel for International Satellite Policy in the International Bureau and spearheaded the privatization of Intelsat and Inmarsat. She holds a J.D. from Georgetown University Law Center and a B.A. from Emory University.
