NOTICE OF APPARENT LIABILITY FOR FORFEITURE

Adopted: March 19, 2015

Released: March 19, 2015

By the Chief, Video Division, Media Bureau:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. In this Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture (“NAL”) issued pursuant to Section 503(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (the “Act”), and Section 1.80 of the Commission’s Rules (the “Rules”),¹ we find that Entravision Holdings, LLC (the “Licensee”), licensee of Station K17GD, Paso Robles, California (the “Station”), apparently willfully and/or repeatedly violated Section 73.3526(e)(11)(iii) of the Rules² by failing to file with the Commission in a timely manner Children’s Television Programming Reports (FCC Form 398) for two quarters. Based upon our review of the facts and circumstances before us, we conclude that the Licensee is liable for a monetary forfeiture in the amount of six thousand dollars ($6,000).

II. BACKGROUND

2. Section 73.3526 of the Rules requires each commercial broadcast licensee to maintain a public inspection file containing specific types of information related to station operations.³ As set forth in subsection 73.3526(e)(11)(iii), each commercial television licensee is required to prepare and place in its public inspection file a Children’s Television Programming Report (FCC Form 398) for each calendar quarter reflecting, inter alia, the efforts that it made during that quarter to serve the educational and informational needs of children. That subsection also requires licensees to file reports with the Commission and place them in their public file by the tenth day of the succeeding calendar quarter, and to publicize the existence and location of the reports.⁴ In addition, subsection 73.3526(e)(11)(i) requires commercial television licensees to retain in their public file, every three months, “a list of programs that have provided the station’s most significant treatment of community issues during the preceding three month period.”⁵ The TV issues/programs lists must be filed by the tenth calendar day of the succeeding quarter.⁶

3. On July 31, 2014, the Licensee filed its license renewal application (FCC Form 303-S) for the Station (the “application”).⁷ The Licensee did not report, as required, that it failed to file two Children’s Television Programming Reports in a timely manner. Review of the electronic public file revealed that no Children’s Television Programming Reports had been filed for two quarters. After Media Bureau staff informed the Licensee’s attorney the two quarterly reports were missing, they were filed on January 27, 2015.

III. DISCUSSION

4. The Licensee’s failure to file electronically the Station’s Children’s Television Programming Reports for two quarters, along with its failure to report the violations, constitutes apparent willful and/or repeated violation of Section 73.3526(e)(11)(iii).

5. This NAL is issued pursuant to Section 503(b)(1)(B) of the Act. Under that provision, any person who is determined by the Commission to have willfully and/or repeatedly failed to comply with any provision of the Act or any rule, regulation, or order issued by the Commission shall be liable to the United States for a forfeiture penalty.⁸ Section 312(f)(1) of the Act defines willful as “the conscious and deliberate commission or omission of [any] act, irrespective of any intent to violate” the law.⁹ The legislative history to Section 312(f)(1) of the Act clarifies that this definition of willful applies to both Sections 312 and 503(b) of the Act,¹⁰ and the Commission has so interpreted the term in the Section 503(b) context.¹¹ Section 312(f)(2) of the Act provides that “[t]he term ‘repeated,’ when used with reference to the commission or omission of any act, means the commission or omission of such act more than once or, if such commission or omission is continuous, for more than one day.”¹²

6. The Commission’s Forfeiture Policy Statement and Section 1.80(b) of the Rules establish a base forfeiture amount of $3,000 for failure to file a required form.¹³ In determining the appropriate forfeiture amount, we may adjust the base amount upward or downward by considering the factors enumerated in Section 503(b)(2)(D) of the Act, including “the nature, circumstances, extent, and gravity of the violation and, with respect to the violator, the degree of culpability, any history of prior offenses, ability to pay, and such other matters as justice may require.”¹⁴ In this case, the Licensee failed to file its Children's Television Programming Reports in a timely manner for two quarters, ranging from four years, nine months late to five years late. The Licensee further failed to report certain violations in its renewal application and we therefore conclude that the Licensee is liable for a $3,000 forfeiture for this violation. Based on our review of the facts and circumstances here, we find that the Licensee is liable for a forfeiture in the amount of $6,000 for its apparent willful and repeated violations of Section 73.3526(e)(11)(iii) of the Rules.
