Reasonable accommodations for people with disabilities are available upon request. Include a description of the accommodation you will need and tell us how to contact you if we need more information. Make your request as early as possible. Last minute requests will be accepted, but may be impossible to fill. Send an e-mail to fcc504@fcc.gov or call the Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau at 202-418-0530 (voice), 202-418-0432 (tty).

Audio/video coverage of the workshop will be broadcast live over the Internet from the FCC's web page at www.fcc.gov/live. The FCC's webcast is free to the public; those who cannot attend can view the webcast at a later date at <https://www.fcc.gov/events/past>.

Background on the #ConnectingCommunities Tour:

In April, 2016, Commissioner Clyburn announced the #ConnectingCommunities tour as a way to hear first-hand about the opportunities and challenges of bringing affordable, diverse and competitive communications services to all Americans. Since the launch nearly six months ago, Commissioner Clyburn has visited or will soon visit the following communities:

- Boston, Massachusetts
- Charleston County, South Carolina
- Chandler/Phoenix, Arizona
- Denver, Colorado
- Indian Land, South Carolina
- Morgantown/Kingwood, West Virginia
- Newark, New Jersey
- New York, New York
- Navajo Nation, New Mexico
- Palo Alto/San Francisco, California
- Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
- San Diego, California
- Seattle, Washington
