

LIFELINE PHONE SERVICE: ONE IS THE LIMIT!

- If you are a low-income consumer and need help paying for phone service, you may be eligible to participate in the Lifeline program.
- The Lifeline Program provides discounts off monthly phone service (wireline or wireless) for eligible low-income consumers.
- You must be eligible to enroll in Lifeline. Eligibility criteria varies by state but if you participate in a government assistance program or have income at or below the poverty level, you may qualify.
- Government rules specifically state that each subscriber can have no more than one Lifeline discounted service.
