

Dear FCC,

Our agency supports the requirement that Speech-to-Speech be provided nationwide within two years so that all Americans with moderate speech disabilities can use the telephone. We have personally seen how this service has enhanced the lives of so many speech disabled Californians. Additionally, we support requirements that each state provide adequate outreach to make Speech-to-Speech useful to this underserved population.>