

I support the requirement that Speech-to-Speech be provided nationwide within two years so that all Americans with moderate speech disabilities can use the telephone. Each state or carrier must provide adequate outreach to make Speech-to-Speech useful to this population.

(Note: I reformatted Dr.Pray's response to meet FCC format requirements.)