

CATHY CUNNINGHAM

Cathy Cunningham is Senior Assistant City Attorney for the City of Irving, TX. Her responsibilities include litigation, negotiation, and the development of legislative strategy in a number of arenas, specifically telecommunications and cable TV franchising. Ms. Cunningham has served on the NATOA Board of Directors and was Secretary/Treasurer during 1997-98. A frequent commentator on public policy, she has presented on many occasions to NATOA, TCCFUI, the Fire Marshall Association, and the American Legislative Exchange Council. Ms. Cunningham received her law degree from St. Louis University and her undergraduate degree from the University of Illinois.