FCC Invites Applications for NDBEDP Certification for Nevada

In 2012, the FCC certified the Deaf and Hard of Hearing Advocacy Resource Center ("DHHARC") to participate in the National Deaf-Blind Equipment Distribution Program (NDBEDP) for the state of Nevada. Recently, DHHARC informed the FCC that it was unable to continue participating in the NDBEDP and relinquished its certification.

To ensure that Nevada is able to continue participating in the NDBEDP, the FCC invites applications from entities interested in receiving certification to distribute equipment under the NDBEDP to qualifying residents in Nevada.

Deadline for applications is May 23, 2013. Links to the Public Notice:
