

Date: Tuesday, March 25, 2014
Subject: Calling for Chairman's AAA nominations by April 15

The FCC's Accessibility and Innovation Initiative has prepared a blog post as a call to action about the Chairman's Awards for Advancement in Accessibility (Chairman's AAA). Nominations are now being sought for recent innovations in communications accessibility that deserve public recognition. FCC Chairman Tom Wheeler will honor winners of the challenge in a ceremony on the evening of Monday, June 9, 2014 at the M-Enabling conference <http://www.m-enabling.com/>

Eligibility criteria and award categories are explained in the blog post at <http://www.fcc.gov/blog/fcc-accepting-nominations-chairman-s-awards-advancement-accessibility-deadline-march-31>

Please note that the nomination deadline has now been extended to Tuesday, April 15.