

Date: Friday, September 18, 2015
Subject: ASL Videos on TRS User Registration Database are now available

The FCC's Disability Rights Office has received several inquiries about the new centralized database for registering users of video relay service. In response to these inquiries, the Disability Rights Office has released a series of American Sign Language (ASL) videos about the Telecommunications Relay Service User Registration Database (TRS-URD), in a Frequently Asked Question (FAQ) format.

TRS User Registration Database FAQ (American Sign Language):

<https://www.fcc.gov/encyclopedia/trs-user-registration-database-faq-asl-video>

Video in YouTube: [add URL]

For more information, contact the ASL Consumer Support Line at (844) 432-2275 via videophone or email DRO@fcc.gov.