Subject: Staffing Changes at FCC's Disability Rights Office

The FCC's Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau is pleased to announce the following staffing changes in its Disability Rights Office (DRO). Suzy Rosen Singleton now serves as the Chief of DRO. Ms. Singleton brings considerable professional and personal expertise to this position, having previously worked on disability matters in DRO, the U.S. Department of Education and the National Association of the Deaf. Additionally, Eliot Greenwald, the existing DRO Division Deputy Chief, has assumed an additional role as the Special Assistant to the Bureau Chief for Telecommunications Relay Services (TRS). Having worked in DRO for the past 5 years, Mr. Greenwald will continue to have primary oversight in the division for all matters related to TRS. The former DRO Chief, Gregory Hlibok, has relocated to the private sector. We wish him the very best of success in his endeavors and appreciate his 15 years of dedication to the Commission.
