

Federal Communications Commission
Public Safety and Homeland Security Bureau

Agency/Bureau/Office:	Federal Communications Commission, Public Safety & Homeland Security Bureau, Emergency Response Interoperability Center (ERIC), 445 12th Street, SW, Washington, DC 20554 The Federal Communications Commission Public Safety and Homeland Security Bureau's Emergency Response Interoperability Center (ERIC) is seeking to fill various intern positions with educational or work experience in law. ERIC is establishing a technical and operational framework to ensure nationwide operability and interoperability of the 700 MHz public safety broadband wireless network. ERIC is responsible for recommending, implementing, and coordinating on interoperability regulations, license requirements, and technical standards within the FCC with input from its Advisory Committees.
Internship Period(s):	Summer 2011, Fall 2011 and Spring 2012
General Duties:	Unpaid Legal Intern Legal interns will assist with analyses of a broad spectrum of legal and policy issues relating to potential and existing programs and regulations of the agency. The intern will perform legal research on a variety of issues and also may be required to prepare written summaries of research findings. Additionally, the intern will assist in the preparation of legal memoranda and other FCC documents. The intern also will attend and participate in meetings with FCC personnel and outside parties.
Selection Criteria:	Second and third year law students must have strong analytical, research, writing and organizational skills and must be able to communicate effectively, both verbally and in writing. Students must be enrolled in law school at least half-time in order to apply.
Send Application to:	Jason Kim, Emergency Response Interoperability Center, Public Safety and Homeland Security Bureau at Jason.Kim@fcc.gov .
Application Information:	Cover letter, resumé and a brief writing sample.
Additional Information:	If you should have any questions concerning this internship, please contact Jason Kim via email at Jason.Kim@fcc.gov or by telephone at (202) 418-7008.
Application Deadline(s):	Not set