

Honorable Commissioners:

Once again, the future of the internet is being manipulated by large corporations who strive for total dominance of a media that was intended to be free and open. The merger of AOL and Time Warner cannot bode well for the average consumer. Their intent is total dominance and nothing less. Control the media, grab the dollars.

User plead that your wisdom will prevail and that your decision will be fair and equitable for all.

Thank you.

EJCaracallo