RE: FCC CS Docket No.: 00-30
Ex Parte Filing

Dear Ms. Salas:

On September 19, 2000, Larry Sidman of Verner, Liipfert, Bernhard, McPherson & Hand, Chtd., counsel to The Walt Disney Company ("Disney") met with Kathryn Brown, Chief of Staff to Chairman Kennard, to discuss the process and time frame for completion of the Commission's review of the Application for Transfer of Licenses, which is the subject of the aforementioned docket. In the course of this discussion, Mr. Sidman emphasized the importance of nondiscrimination safeguards to prevent a combined AOL/Time Warner from favoring its content on the AOL/Time Warner broadband platform to the detriment of unaffiliated content providers, especially regarding Interactive Television applications. These concerns are fully explicated in Disney's May 11, 2000 Reply Comments, its July 25, 2000 Written Ex Parte filing and in its September 7, 2000 Ex Parte filing and associated attachments.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Lawrence R. Sidman
