

I implore you not to let AOL Time Warner restrict my freedom of speech through enforcing their "standards" or through speed-capping. as a free citizen I have the right to establish my own standards both personal and commercial and not have my access to internet usage smothered by some huge corporat conglomerate that makes Microsoft look like a pipsqueak. Pleas before you approve this merger assure that they must recognize the rights of individual users to freedom of expression.

Thank you. William Guy