

I oppose the AOL-Time-Warner merger, as I oppose monopolies. However, given the certainty that it will be approved, I recommend these two remedies:

1. Complete freedom of speech, even objectionable speech, must be guaranteed for users.
2. The cable and other broadband lines must be open to ANY ISP that the customer chooses.