

AOL forces consumers to use their interface. Their interface bombards their customers with advertisements. Their customers are too stupid to take their business elsewhere. Please do not let AOL into the broadband arena. AOL has a track record of censorship that is will continue into what we can watch on TV? NO NO NO!!! I chose not to use AOL, please do not force AOL upon us with the merger. No good for the consumer can come of it.