

As a small business operator, I urge you not to support the pending EchoStar and DirectTV merger. This is another way for them to take advantage of the customers who have already bought equipment and also they will have a monopoly on what price they can charge and being in rural area. I have to be a customer since no cable is available. Please take time not to let this happen, we must have fair competition in this area.
support.