

I am against the merger my feelings are that the benefit is over stressed. The loss of competition between DirectTV and DISH Network outweighs the benefits of offering all local networks. Internet over satellite has a time lag problem that I think will be overcome by other delivery media. Lastly if you could have watched the July 12th Charley Chat and seen Charley joking about CEO's telling the truth. Mr. Poker Face I am sure is telling you only what you want to hear, his history tells us dealers he has very little loyalty to anyone except himself.
