

Please support the merger of Echostar and Direct TV. This merger must be looked at as competition with the monopoly cable industry, not as competition within the satellite TV industry. Only when local channels are available across the country through satellite will there actually be a true competitor with the cable companies. This merger will help make it happen.