

I believe that the echostar merger with direct tv is something that should be done. I totally support it.
With it, many more people can receive high quality television.