

I would like you to not approve the merger between Echostar and Directv. As a satelllite retailer I beleive that there should be competition between atleast two DBS providers or more. As a small independent retailer of both Directv And Echostar I want you to know that it is in everyones best interest that the merger not be approved. Not only would satellite customers suffer from this, but small business people like myself would be eliminated.

Dennis Arsenault
Arsenaults TVRO