

The Honorable Michael K. Powell
Chairman
Federal Communications Commission

Dear Chairman Powell:

I am writing on behalf of Dish Networks / Direct TV. I wholeheartedly support the merger of these two companies. I live in Tulsa, OK, and as things stand now, there are only two ways to receive local broadcast channels. I can choose to use Cox cable, and be subjected to escalating rates, poor customer service, etc., or try and receive local channels through a roof top antenna, really a non-choice, because many stations do not come in very clearly. I have chosen to use Dish because they are more customer oriented than Cox. Let them deal with Cox on an equal footing, and I am sure you will see that consumers are truly the ones that will benefit.

Sincerely,

Marcus Bandi
