

I encourage the FCC to deny the merger request between Echostar and DirectTV. For those rural customers where cable TV is not available, satellite is the ONLY OPTION we have. If these two companies merge, there will be no competition on the satellite market and prices will increase once their monopoly is in place.

Thank you,

Doug Bennett