

The Honorable Michael K. Powell
Chairman
Federal Communications Commission

Dear Chairman Powell:

I do NOT support the merger of Dish Network and Direct TV. I dealt with Primestar before it was merged with Direct and was happy with the service I received. Once Primestar became Direct TV the service was HORRIBLE!! That is the reason I switched over to Dishnet and have been happy with them so far.

If you make the merger, I, as well as, several others in my area will discontinue using the service. Time Warner Cable will soon be available in my area and I will opt to go with them if/when the merge takes place. I have lots of friends and co-workers who were totally dissatisfied with Direct so I know I won't be the only one.

Please reconsider this merger and I hope after reconsideration, Dishnet will realize this is a HUGE mistake.

Sincerely,

Rose Brewer
