

I oppose the proposed merger as it would remove competition from the satellite tv and satellite internet market. This merger will only limit competition. Furthermore, if the company makes good on its threat to only serve IP data to Windows computers, Microsoft's stranglehold on PC users will increase, locking out users of UNIX, LINUX, MACOS, and other systems. I strongly oppose this merger.