DISH Network High Definition Update

DISH Network has expanded its line-up of High Definition programming to include CBS-HD programming from WCBS in New York, and from KCBS in Los Angeles.

NOTE: To take advantage of this High Definition signal, subscribers must have a second dish antenna pointed at the 61.5 or 148 satellite location and an IRD HD Receiver Model 6000. A High Definition Television is also required.

As with any distant network signal, subscribers must qualify to receive these High Definition services. This qualification is mainly a function of federal laws relating to delivery of local channels. In general there are two ways you can qualify:

QUALIFICATION METHOD #1

1. You must live in one of the 17 market areas served by stations owned and operated by the CBS corporation. Owned and operated stations are commonly referred to as O&O stations. (O&O stations serve only 35% of the country. Hence, most areas in the country are served by stations which carry CBS programming, but are owned by independent companies. These are known as affiliates.)

The 17 markets served by CBS O&O stations are: Austin, Baltimore, Boston, Chicago, Dallas, Denver, Detroit, Los Angeles, Marquette, Miami, Minneapolis, New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Salt Lake City, San Francisco, and Green Bay.

AND

2. You must not be in range to receive the signals of a CBS affiliate from a nearby city. For instance many people in Baltimore (an O&O station market) are in range of the Washington DC CBS affiliate. These Baltimore residents cannot receive the HD feed without a waiver from the washington DC CBS affiliate. The logic behind this is that the owners of the affiliate station do not wish to lose viewers to the New York or LA CBS station, generally a loss of viewers leads to a loss of ad revenue for the station.

Importantly, it is possible to get a waiver from the affiliate station allowing you receive a distant CBS feed. Today, CBS is attempting to get blanket waivers for the HD feed for all customers affected by these neighboring affiliate stations. If this effort is not successful, we will seek to get individual CBS waivers for individual customers upon request. Unfortunately, we do not have the ability to compel affiliate stations to grant waivers. Waivers are granted at the affiliate station's discretion, which is beyond our control. Please be assured that we are working hard with CBS in an effort to procure affiliate waivers.

January 1, 2002

Dear Denise & Terry,

Effective February 1, 2002, you will see changes in the packaging and pricing of your DISH Network programming.

America's Top Programming and Premium Movie Services

All of our America's Top programming packages (including AT50, AT100 and AT150) and our premium movie services (HBO, Showtime, Starz and Cinemax), either as a single service or a premium package, will increase by $1. Please note, if you are a Digital Home Plan customer or an I Like 9 customer in your first 12 months, your America's Top 100 or America's Top 150 will not increase prior to the end of your commitment period.

Price changes are due solely to increased rates from programmers, but we are pleased our rate increase is well below most cable rate increases across the country.

New Local Channels At No Extra Charge

NEW channels were added January 1st to your local package including UPN, WB, PBS (normally sold separately) plus many others depending on the city*. The price of this package, when it includes PBS, continues to be $5.99 a month. In order to accommodate the added channels to this local package, we have moved the local channels to the 8000 range on your On-Screen Guide. Enter 8-0-0-0 with your remote to see what is available with your receiver. If you currently receive one of our distant networks, you may see changes in your Distant Network package.
