

WE cannot receive local broadcast channels because of the terrain where we live, even though by our zip code the local broadcasters tell us we should be able to. I have invited representatives from all three local stations to come to my house to try it for themselves. They all refused. My only television comes from satellite. I never know what is happening locally unless I read the paper. Please support the merger between ECHO STAR and HUGHES NETWORK so they will allow local channels on the satellite.