

FCC.

You folks have already screwed the little people with the satellite home viewers act, so now you will compound it by allowing a monopoly to be formed to further screw the rural little guy.