

I am extremely unhappy with my local cable company and would like to find an alternative. The problem is that if I switch to dish network there is a great possibility that I will not get local channels. I would like this merger to go through so that I can have a viable alternative to my local cable company. With no alternative it creates a business with monopolistic environment that is conflict with the law.

Sincerely,
Anthony Correia