

The Honorable Michael K. Powell
Chairman
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20554

Dear Chairman Powell:

I'm writing in support of the proposed DISH Network / DirectTV merger. However, I would like to voice my opinion. I believe the merger will be good for consumers provided the price of the service is regulated so as not to price it out of reach of many Americans.

Also, it would be nice if regulations regarding local channels were relaxed so consumers could pick which local cities they could subscribe to. I live on the fringe of a local area and would probably be better served by a neighboring market area, but I am told by my satellite service that because I live where I do, I must subscribe to local channels in Detroit. It would be nice if I could subscribe to Toledo or Lansing/Jackson markets.

Sincerely,

Terry Csizmar
