

I do not feel that the merger of Echostar and Dish Network will benefit the consumer. I feel they will have the ability to charge whatever they want to and offer what ever programming they want.

Please keep us from another monopoly!