

The Honorable Michael K. Powell
Chairman
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20554

Dear Chairman Powell:

I think it is a bad idea to merge these two giants together. The reason, price. Monopolies are not good for the average consumer. As long as these two companies have to fight for the consumer dollar, the more competitive the prices will be. If these companies merge. The price will increase. I know this because of human nature. If they know that consumers will have no other outlet, than they will try to max as much profit as possible. Do not allow them to merge. Competition is important in America. Without it, we consumers will be at the mercy of a select few.

Sincerely,
