

The Honorable Michael K. Powell
Chairman
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20554

Dear Chairman Powell:

After thoroughly reviewing currently available information on this merger and having had service from both DIRECTV and DISH, this merger would not be in the best interest of the consumer. DIRECTV is very disorganized and their programming changes almost daily. DISH, on the other hand, is just the opposite and their programming prices are far below DIRECTV'S and service far exceeds anyone elses, satellite or cable. I urge you to consider this merger very carefully.

Sincerely,

James Engelke
