

I am presently paying my local cable provider $10.00+ per month for our local network feed. I would rather pay me satellite provider. I can't even get distant network feeds from my satellite provider because of the government rulings. When will the government stop telling me what I need when I am capable of making the decision my self. This is entertainment not some national security issue.