

I support the merger. Because of my personal business requirement to have high speed internet access I am limited to working in large cities with cable access. However, large city living has bad effects on my health. If I could have access to high speed internet in rural areas I would move immediately for health reasons.