

I urge you to support the proposed merger between Hughes Communication and Echostar. This merger would provide a much stronger competitive environment between cable and satellite television.