

The Honorable Michael K. Powell
Chairman
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20554

Dear Chairman Powell:

I am writing because I live in a rural town of Nebraska. The area which I live does not offer high speed internet access, and from what I have been told, there more than likely will not be any DSL or Cable services installed. Which is dissappointing since most towns in a 10 mile radius of mine have DSL. By allowing the DISH and Directc merger to pass, it will allow me to gain high speed internet access, plus pick up the local news stations from Omaha. So please pass this merger, and myself along with several other households in my town, will be able to enjoy the new benefits.

Sincerely,

Mark Greenwood
