

I am a consumer opposed to the DirectTV/Echostar merger. This is because it will create a monopoly, resulting in higher prices and inferior satellite receivers. I fear that Echostar will force me to give up my integrated TiVo without a suitable replacement.

Thank you.