

as a subscriber to dish network, i appreciate having a choice in programming providers. where i live, just outside san antonio, there is no cable service. having the choice between satellite providers is very important to us. approving the hughes-echostar merger would leave no choice in the direct-satellite market. i therefore oppose the merger and hope that your decision reflects the needs and rights of american consumers.

thank you,
matt hutchinson