

The Honorable Michael K. Powell
Chairman
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20554

Dear Chairman Powell:

Gentlemen:

I'm in disagreement with the Echostar/DirectTV merger. These companies Echostar and DirectTV are the two largest companies offering TV programing. If they were to merge they would essentially be a monopoly. There is only a couple other small satallite companies out there. Pricing will go up and alot of people in rural areas will have no choice. It wouldn't be a big deal if it was a merger with one of the other smaller companies, but it's not. VOTE NO for the Echostar/DirectTV Merger.

Sincerely,

Justin Nye
