

I have been a subscriber to Dish Network for four years. They have provided extremely reliable and reasonably priced service. Because I live in the country, I don't have access to cable. Dish Network has a very courteous and responsive customer service staff. I only wish my telephone service was as good.