

I am writing to express my desire that all programming be made/kept available to everyone in any given area to watch it. The airwaves regarding television viewing should be open for the same competitive audience that there is for the cellular market.