

Please lend a favorable ear to the upcoming merger of DirectTV and Dishnetwork. I am tired of cable monopolizing the local markets. The merger would give added resources to the satellite company to better compete, thus giving us, the consumer a better choice in programming.