

I support the effort to combine Echostar and DirectTV. I have had cable TV and find it expensive and its quality and service poor.

I believe this merger if approved will allow the satellite industry to better compete with cable.

Because of my dissatisfaction with my local cable company, I have switch to DirectTV and have been quite satisfied with their service.

I believe Echostar will keep their promise to maintain fair pricing in rural areas.