

I believe that dish and directv will never be able to compete with the cable companies if they don't merge. Let them merge to combine their resources and provide us with better service and choices. Also, I as a resident of Folsom, CA, can't get the local news from other cities because of some law that says dish and directv can't offer it to me. PLEASE change that law! I would love to get local stations from other cities!