

I have a Motorhome, equipped with a Dish Satellite system. I would like to be able to receive my 'hometown' news while I am traveling around the country. I was told by DirectTV that I am unable to receive the Denver channels while I am in Southern California, because of 'spot beaming' of the signals. They said I am outside the signal area. I thought ALL signals were receivable throughout the country. What is going on?